

If you would like your child to submit a letter, email, or other communication or correspondence in support of one of our missions or programs (“Campaign Letter”), including the 1 Million Letters #ForNature Campaign, we must first obtain consent of a parent or legal guardian.

We ask that you sign the following consent and provide the information below:

CONSENT

I give my permission to have my child's name, country of residence, and Campaign Letter published in support of Reserva’s missions and programs. I understand that my child’s Campaign Letter may be submitted to target audiences, including non-governmental organizations, intergovernmental organizations, and public authorities responsible for land management, as well as published on Reserva’s website or promotional materials.

I further give permission for my child’s photograph to be submitted and/or published in support of Reserva’s missions and programs.

I have read the foregoing. I fully understand its contents, understand that this consent does not expire, and confirm my agreement by signing below. I am over the age of 18 (or the age of majority where I live, if different) and have legal capacity to sign this consent on behalf of the child or children identified below:
